1. Between 15 and 20 October 1950, the 33rd Infantry Regiment from Cheb (N51/P37) and the 46th Infantry Regiment from As (N51/P18) moved into Susice (N50/Q28). Both units are part of the 13th Infantry Division at Karlovy Vary. In Susice the units were housed in the Commercial Academy, the former Hotel "Pod Strazi", the Gymnasium, the Health Insurance Headquarters, and the Capuchin Cloister.
2. During the same period, a horse-drawn artillery unit of undetermined strength moved into Kasperske Hory (N50/Q27) and was quartered at the former SNB training ground.
3. The Horazdovice (N50/Q39) garrison has been strengthened to 3,000 men. A monastery and a large storehouse have recently been taken over for quarters.
4. An unidentified tank unit is now quartered on the grounds of a castle in Sokolov (N51/P58). On 18 October, a new garrison of 400 men moved into Jindrichovice (N50/Q19) and was quartered in the Nostic Castle which had formerly been occupied by Greek children.

Comment: [redacted] unable to explain the movement of these infantry units into the Böhmerwald (Gesky Les) at the expense of former positions in As and Cheb unless the latter cities are to be occupied by armored units in the near future.
